

COMPASS HACKS

SUNSET

Happens in the West.
Stand a stick straight up and the shadow will point East.

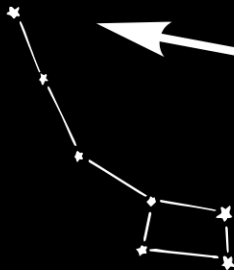

SUNRISE

Happens in the East.
Stand a stick straight up and the shadow will point West.

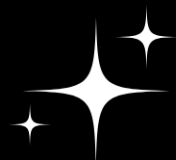

The North Star (Polaris)

Polaris has guided more Souls than any other compass for millennia. It's the tip of the handle in The Little Dipper. The top of The Big Dipper points to the bottom of the little dipper's "handle" if you look at them like spoons.
